Return to CIA 14-00000

1. Communist successes in the Amoy area were largely a result of the reluctance of Nationalist Generals LIU Ju-min; and TSAO Fu-lin (曹福林), members of the old FENG Yu-hsiang Northwest Clique, to commit their troops to battle.
2. Before the Communist occupation of Amoy, LIU and TSAO were sent by T'ANG Shun-po to Taiwan, where they were removed from their commands by CH'EN Ch'eng, head of the Southeast China Command. Their troops, now also on Taiwan, will be reorganized under other nationalist officers.
